NOTICE.

In placing the present Catalogue of my stock of PERIODICALS, TRANSACTIONS OF LEARNED SOCIETIES, and ISSUES FROM PRIVATE PRESSES before my Customers, I would draw their attention to the extreme intricacy of this department of the Book-Trade. In spite of numerous occupations, I devote an especial care to this very laborious but important branch of Literature, and recommend myself to Librarians of PUBLIC INSTITUTIONS to complete their imperfect sets of Publications coming under the above heading.

A careful examination of the present Catalogue will show the marvellous extent of PERIODICAL LITERATURE, which is one of the prime causes of the present advanced state of European and American civilization.

It may be surmised, that American Libraries are weaker than the old European Libraries in the possession of perfect sets of the Learned Transactions. I therefore recommend this Catalogue especially to American Librarians.

The amount of patient labour and industry bestowed upon the collecting and cataloguing of the works here advertised has been considerable, and I trust that it may be compensated by a liberal patronage.

BERNARD QUARITCH.

Just out, part 9 of

ROWLEY'S Ornithological Miscellany, 4to. 7 plates, three coloured, sd. 10s 6d 1877

CONTENTS :

On the Genus Ptelopus , by G. D. Rowley. On Bird-Nets, by Rowley. On a recent addition to the Species of		the Genus Loriculus , by P. L. Sclater. The Birds of Mongolia, by Col. Przevalsky.

"One of the best illustrated parts of the Ornithological Miscellany." The plate of Bird Netting on the Wash is thought very good, and this number has also a most rare and curious bird in it—"Ædirhinus insolitus"—the plate of which is in Part VIII. It is a strange pigeon, because of the protuberance on the upper mandible.

New British Museum publication :

SHARPE (R. Bowdler) CATALOGUE of BIRDS, Vol.
III : Passeriformes or Perching Birds, 8vo. xiii and 343 pp. 14
coloured plates, besides woodcuts, cloth, 17s 1877

"The present volume treats of the first group of the Passeriformes or Perching Birds, the Coliormorphæ. The total number of species enumerated is 367. . . . the number of specimens 2014."—R. B. Sharpe.

"As no similar monograph of these Birds has been published since the year 1850, it may be hoped that the present work will not only assist the numerous students of this portion of the British Museum Collections, but also prove useful to Ornithologists."—A. Gunther.

Wales and Shropshire: BRIDGEMAN (Rev. the Hon.
George T. O.) HISTORY OF THE PRINCES OF SOUTH
WALES, 1 vol. large 8vo. with 11 Tables of Pedigrees, cloth, 21s Wigan, privately printed, 1876

A most valuable contribution to the History of Wales and of England; the genealogical information is most exact—all the work is based upon original researches of Manuscripts and Family documents.

The above sets are both from the library of the Rev. J. M. Gresley, who was Secretary of the Society. The name of ILAM was taken from the picturesque village of that name in STAFFORDSHIRE, where the Society was first started.

others) as number 6 is called Vol. II part 1, 1853 ; 7, Vol. II, No. 2, 1853 ;

An exceedingly rare and important publication. The most eminent scientific men of the present century have contributed papers to it. Amongst the names may be mentioned Airy, Herschel, Babbage, Whewell, Lowe (Botany), De Morgan, Challis, Ansted, Owen, etc.

Of Vol. I, plates 9, 10, and of Vol. V, plates 3-6, were never published.

Catalogues of Pictures.

viously. The above is a complete set of the Catalogues issued by this Institution with the exception of one part only, 1809. It is rarely that a set so nearly complete is offered for sale. It formerly belonged to Mr. Carpenter of the British Museum.

- 770 CATALOGUES of the British Institution, 1811, 1813 to 1853,—42 Catalogues, 4to. sd. 25s 1811-53

- 771 CATALOGUES of many important Collections of Paintings by Artists of all Schools, which have been sold by auction in England during the last half century, about 300 in number, with the prices which each lot fetched, and, in some cases, the purchasers' names, the lot for £6. 1800-73

Such a record of the prices given for valuable pictures must be of the deepest interest to a collector. The time and trouble bestowed upon collecting and marking them was of course immense.

- 772 BURLINGTON FINE ARTS CLUB: Albert Dürer and Lucas van Leyden, by J. W. REED, Keeper of the Prints in the British Museum, 4to. 1s 1869

- 773 ——— Raphael Sanzio and Michael Angelo Buonarrotti, 4to. 1s 6d 1870

- 774 Royal Academy of Arts: EXHIBITION CATALOGUES, 1769 (the first, very rare) down to 1873 (without 1773, '76 and '78), sm. 4to. three vols. hf. calf, the rest sd. the whole arranged in cases, lettered, £20. 1769-1873

Added is the rare Catalogue for 1769 of the Royal Society of Artists.

The early Catalogues of the Royal Academy are extremely rare. Such a desirable set as the above, collected with much care and patience, ought to find a place in a public library. Very few complete sets can be in existence. The early purchasers could not of course know what demand there would be for their interesting shilling's-worth in years to come, and so they put them in the waste with their catalogues of ironmongery and other useless lists.

So complete and desirable a set of this valuable Antiquarian periodical is rarely to be met with. The set is, as described above, complete down to what may be considered its end, 1868. On June 1st, 1868, an entirely new series commenced. The Magazine is now devoted to the drama, general literature, fiction, music, etc. The great inferiority of this new publication is such as to prevent its being treated as a continuation of its famous predecessor; the value of the latter to the historian, the student, and to the general reader being well-known.

 The volumes for the years 1799 to 1802, inclusive, (8 vols.) are at present absent, having unaccountably strayed from the set. A liberal reward will be paid to any one returning them.

the Hiberno-Celtic MSS., formerly in the Library of Stowe, but now added to the literary treasures of Ashburnham House, near Hastings, the Earl of Ashburnham having purchased the whole of the Stowe Collection of MSS. Dr. O'Connor refrained from inserting any work which had already been printed, and the entire series may be said to consist of important additions to the history and antiquities of Ireland, most of which were only previously known to us by name. Therefore, "Whether we consider the learning of O'Connor, the value of the materials, or the princely munificence of the Duke of Buckingham, at whose expense it was produced, it is without a parallel in modern literature."—Sir F. Palgrave, Rise of the English Commonwealth.

- 1003 SCOTTISH SESSIONS PAPERS OF THE LORDS OF COUNCIL AND SESSION, A.D. 1761-1770:

A Collection of Privately Printed Papers, relating to Peerage Cases, Family Disputes, Estates, Legal, Mercantile, and Local Matters, and a variety of other subjects :—the whole comprising several hundred pieces, with manuscript remarks, opinions, decisions, etc.—bound in 25 thick vols. 4to. hf. calf, chiefly uncut, £75. 1761-70

This very remarkable collection is probably unique, as the documents were evidently printed only for the use of the Court of Session, and it is likely that only half a dozen copies of each were struck off. To the Scottish genealogist and family historian it is altogether invaluable for the information relative to the domestic history of former times.

"Some years ago the design of publishing Les Historiens des Gaules de la France was resumed on a larger scale and in a more splendid form; and although the name of Dom Bouquet stands foremost, the merits must be shared amongst the veteran Benedictines of the Abbey of St. Germain des Prés at Paris. This noble collection may be proposed as a model for such national works; the original texts are corrected from the best manuscripts; the curious reader is enlightened without being oppressed by the perspicuous brevity of the preface and notes. But a multitude of obstacles and delays seem to have impeded the progress of the undertaking; and the historians of France had only attained the twelfth century and the thirteenth volume, when a general deluge overwhelmed the country and its ancient inhabitants."—Gibbon's Miscellaneous Works, vol. 2, p. 713.

"The tables of contents and the index are framed with so much minuteness as to bring, in a few minutes, before the reader's eye, all that can be found respecting any fact within the period of the collection, and the dissertations are so copious and ably executed, that there seldom is a point of importance where the writers have not collected the learning and sentiments of all preceding writers. Dom Bouquet lived to finish the first eight volumes; on his decease, the work was put into the hands of Dom Haudiquier, who had, in Dom Bouquet's life-time, learned the Arabic language, to enable him to print, with a translation, the authors who have written in that language upon the Crusades. Both writers were Benedictine monks of St. Maur; and invaluable as the work is it is by no means the only work of the same calibre for which we are indebted to that learned community."—Works of C. Butler, vol. 2, p. 5. (Appendix.)

Bouquet is a name better known to the continental historian than any other compiler and editor, and indeed almost every one who has studied the earlier portions of the English history, must be familiar with the sound. This Benedictine was commissioned by his order to draw up one of those immense works which, from time to time, have been the peculiar boast of the French literary world, and to which we have nothing to compare in our country. It was considered desirable that all ancient and mediæval writers upon the history of France should be collected into one immense corpus historicum for the good of the nation.—H. L. Jones, in Gent.'s Magazine, Dec. '55.

 "Dom Rivet de la Grange was the principal author of the Literary History of France, of which he edited the first nine volumes. "All preceding collections of Northern Antiquities were exceeded equally in splendour, utility, and extent, by the meritorious labours of LANGEBEK, whose collection has now become a work of uncommon occurrence. The editor was doubtless the Bouquet of Denmark. It is said that the present venerable and learned Dr. Thorkelin, principal librarian of the Royal Library at Copenhagen, seldom pronounces the name of Langebek without passing his hand across his eyes, or placing it on his heart. This interesting publication is the rival of the celebrated Bengal Journal, both in its rarity and in its importance to scholars. The articles are equally varied and ably written, the papers on Natural History, Mythology, Antiquities, and Ethnology, being especially valuable, and written by the most distinguished men.

As usual with Asiatic publications there is some intricacy in the arrangement of the Madras Journal. The first volume was complete in five numbers (1-5); the second, in four numbers (6-9); two numbers then appeared (10 and 11), which were intended to form a third volume; but on the appearance of No. 12 (Vol. IV pt. 1) a notice was issued stating that titles and indexes to the third and fourth volumes would be published with the next number (13, or last part of Vol. IV). On the appearance of that number, however, the title and index to Vol. IV alone were published, and as an excuse, a "notice to the binder" was issued, saying, "The 10th and 11th Nos. may be bound up separately, or with the previous volume, at discretion." In some copies of this part which appeared later, the title to Vol. III was inserted: the first two sets above described have this title. Vols. IV to the end are each complete in two thick parts. The titles and indexes were published irregularly, but when not in the parts to which they belong, they will be found further on, perhaps three or four numbers later

This is the great collection which must precede all other works on topographical history and antiquities. Almost all copies vary amongst themselves in extent and otherwise; but in every case the prices they fetch at sales are very high. The above copy has the LIST OF THE SOCIETY OF ANTIQUARIES (facsimile reprint) in the last volume, but has not Ironside's Twickenham. In every other respect the copy is complete, even in the two excessively rare Supplementary Volumes. To every great library this work is indispensable.

This small volume of 84 pp. had become so scarce as to be worth twenty guineas. Mr. Quaritch had the above reprint carefully made by Whittingham. Only 20 copies were struck off, and half of them were secured at once.

This great work, an exposition of the doctrines of many creeds, was composed A.H. 521, and is one of the most valuable productions of Arabic literature. Its high importance at the present time, when the study of old creeds and mythologies is so universal, may be estimated from an abridgment of the contents. It comprises an account of the Mussulmans and all their numerous sects ; the Jews ; Christians and their sects ; Magi, Zoroastrians, Manichæans, and other claimants of revealed religion ; Sabæans ; the Hermetic philosophy ; the Greek Philosophers and their schools, from Thales to Porphyry : the system of Muhammadan doctors, especially Avicenna ; the pre-Islamite religion of Arabia ; Brahminism, Buddhism, and the other religions of India, concluding with an account of Hindu philosophers.

On the wrapper of one of the parts issued five years ago, the following advertisement occurs: "A set of 'The Ibis,' 1st Series, 6 vols. 8vo. price £20." The value since then has risen greatly. In proportion as the number of subscribers has increased, so has the demand for back vols. increased also, and it is obvious that many sets must necessarily want the early portion.

This set has been distributed into Monographs (as intended by the Society), for binding in the form of independent works. Eleven of the monographs have already been so treated and the remainder await the publication of the concluding portions. The convenience and utility of this arrangement (as compared with that of binding the vols. as they appear, i.e. composed of odd portions of different monographs) is obvious. The set has been carefully examined and is guaranteed to contain all published down to 1874 inclusive. A few of the complete monographs remain unbound, and the last seven vols. remain intact as issued.

II, III, IV, and VI, 6 vols. small 4to. vellum, and some parts, as described, £2. 10s 1791-5

The above interesting collection of Periodical Writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30.

It is generally found defective, and copies vary to a considerable degree. The second copy described above is no exception to this rule; it wants, besides Vol. V, Nos. 333, 4, in Vol. IX, which are frequently absent. Some Nos. have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same No., although the text runs on correctly. The last part of Vol. XI is number 382, yet the first of Vol. XII receives the number 573, from which the numeration proceeds to the end (No. 611), although nothing is deficient. The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements; it was suppressed by the Spanish government, as the enlightened opinions which the French Revolution had first set afloat were winning popularity amongst the educated youths of Spanish Peru. There is a sort of indignant bitterness in the title of the last volume, which is stated to be "dado a luz por uno de los individuos de la Sociedad."

“This active and learned Society was founded in 1829 by Bunsen and Welcker, etc. with the co-operation of other celebrities then resident in Rome, of Italian and other birth, among whom were Fea and Thorwaldsen. The objects proposed from the first were, antiquarian research in those countries where art and science had their homes in ancient times, and the editing of newly-discovered monuments pertaining to the Epochs of Greek and Roman civilization. . . . The [present] periodical publications of the Society consist of a Bulletino (monthly during the winter) and Monumenti ed Annali, annually produced. Though the centre of its scientific activities is in Rome, the chief conduct rests with a ‘Central Direction’ of seven members resident at Berlin.”—Athenæum, January 6, 1872.

"The works of Arthur Young should have a prominent part in every economical library."—Macculloch.

"The works of Arthur Young did incomparably more than those of any other individual to introduce a taste for agriculture, and so diffuse a knowledge of the art in this and other countries. They are written in an animated, forcible, pure English style; and are at once interesting and instructive. It has been truly said, that if great zeal, indefatigable exertion, and an unsparing expense in making experiments can give any one a claim to the gratitude of agriculturists, Arthur Young deserves it more than most men."—Kirwan's Irish Transactions, as quoted in 'Penny Cyclopædia.'

II, III, IV, and VI, 6 vols. small 4to. vellum, and some parts, as described, £2. 10s 1791-5

The above interesting collection of Periodical Writings is of the greatest rarity. Thorpe, in one of his Catalogues, states that a gentleman had assured him he could meet with but one copy in his travels through Spain, for which he was asked upwards of £30.

It is generally found defective, and copies vary to a considerable degree. The second copy described above is no exception to this rule; it wants, besides Vol. V, Nos. 333, 4, in Vol. IX, which are frequently absent. Some Nos. have been omitted, while the pagination remains correct; and sometimes there are two with the same No., although the text runs on correctly. The last part of Vol. XI is number 382, yet the first of Vol. XII receives the number 573, from which the numeration proceeds to the end (No. 611), although nothing is deficient. The periodical seems to have been produced under great difficulties and discouragements; it was suppressed by the Spanish government, as the enlightened opinions which the French Revolution had first set afloat were winning popularity amongst the educated youths of Spanish Peru. There is a sort of indignant bitterness in the title of the last volume, which is stated to be "dado a luz por uno de los individuos de la Sociedad."

"This active and learned Society was founded in 1829 by Bunsen and Welcker, etc. with the co-operation of other celebrities then resident in Rome, of Italian and other birth, among whom were Fea and Thorwaldsen. The objects proposed from the first were, antiquarian research in those countries where art and science had their homes in ancient times, and the editing of newly-discovered monuments pertaining to the Epochs of Greek and Roman civilization. . . . The [present] periodical publications of the Society consist of a Bulletino (monthly during the winter) and Monumenti ed Annali, annually produced. Though the centre of its scientific activities is in Rome, the chief conduct rests with a 'Central Direction' of seven members resident at Berlin."—Athenæum, January 6, 1872.

DIGBY (Kenelm) the BROAD STONE OF HONOUR;

OR TRUE SENSE and PRACTICE OF CHIVALRY, in 4 Books :
GODEFRIDUS, 1 vol. ; TANCREDUS, 1 vol. ; MORUS, 1 vol. ; and ORLANDUS, 2 vols. ; together 5 vols. post 8vo. cloth, £2. 12s 6d

———— the same, LARGE PAPER, 5 vols. 8vo. hf. Roxburghe, £5. 5s

The first and second editions had been long out of print when this third one was undertaken. It contains the same matter as the original edition, but is in some measure improved, a greater degree of accuracy having been aimed at in verifying quotations, and in correcting the typographical and other errors which have inevitably crept into the text.

"We are glad to see that Mr. Quaritch has reprinted a small number of copies of Kenelm Digby's Broadstone of Honour, which has long been out of print, and a rarity to be found sometimes in catalogues. The book breathes an air of scholarly refinement, and is full of out-of-the-way knowledge on the history of the Middle Ages. It has long been a favourite with those who like to look back upon the past clad in the glamour of an ideal which has passed away. Many who take no interest either in the spirit of chivalry or the history of chivalry still would find materials for a psychological study of the temperament which shrinks from the hard aspect of the present and finds its consolation in peering into the past which its own imagination has clad in a splendid haze. This is eminently the spirit of the more refined and thoughtful representatives of Modern Catholicism, and no book expresses more gracefully its impossible ideal than does The Broad Stone of Honour. Mr. Quaritch's reprint is limited to 500 copies on small paper, and 50 copies on large paper."

Academy, July 28, 1877.

Layard's Birds of South Africa, NEW EDITION, almost entirely re-written by R. B. Sharpe, F.L.S., F.Z.S., to be completed in 6 parts, royal 8vo. 12 or more coloured plates, price to Subscribers £2. 2s 1875-77

Parts I and IV are now ready; the remaining two will be delivered within six months. The purchaser is to bind himself to take the ENTIRE WORK.

"In preparing this new edition, it is evident that Mr. Sharpe has bestowed upon it considerable time and trouble. Not content with revising the text so as to bring it to a level with the knowledge of the present day, he has carefully gone through all the works bearing on the subject published prior to the first edition, and has reproduced the excellent notes by Mr. Ayres on the birds of Natal, which Mr. Layard for want of space was compelled to omit.

"Especially pains seems to have been taken with the Geographical distribution, the ranges of the various birds being carefully traced throughout the different districts of South Africa."—The Zoologist, August, 1877.

OLD LIBRARIES BOUGHT FOR CASH

at the maximum market value, without any deductions or delays. The danger of selling by auction—rather than disposing of Libraries to respectable dealers—has been pointed out by a leading article in the "Times," Sept. 26, 1866, from which the following is an extract:—

"An auction is the most unfair of all sales, and is the most "ruinous method of disposing of any sort of goods. As matters are "now managed, no one will resort to an auction who can dispose
"of his goods by any other means."

BERNARD QUARITCH, 15 Piccadilly, LONDON.
